

Behaviour

The passenger agrees to conduct themselves in an appropriate manner not to cause disturbance, offence or inconvenience to any other persons on board the vessel, nor engage in dangerous behaviour that will damage or compromise the safety and welfare of other persons or the vessel. The passenger will comply with all or any direction given by the master of the vessel. While we permit the moderate consumption of alcohol, excess drinking will not be tolerated.

Departure

You will be advised of a departure time prior to your charter.

Liability

As payment gives the passenger the right to participate in the fishing charter including services offered and food provided, you indemnify Absolute Fishing Charters and hold them free from any and all liability, actions, cause of action, debt or claim, demands of every kind and nature whatsoever, in the respect that: Fishing charters have inherent risks and hazards which may occur, including but not limited to: embarking, disembarking, the wind and waves, overbalance, sharp objects, loose objects, wet surfaces, overhead gear, fishing gear, the use of safety equipment, life rafts, life jackets, flares

Absolute Fishing Charters, its Owners, Staff and Agents will not be liable for any damage, loss or injury occasioned during recreational fishing associated activities, nor will it meet the costs of medical evacuation in the event of injury.

Absolute Fishing Charters reserves the right to undertake any type of manner of fishing activity if, in the absolute discretion of the Captain, conditions are not safe or suitable for such activities without any legal liability for such refusal.

While we will make every endeavour to keep the catch fresh, no responsibility will be held for the condition or spoilage of the fish catch.

Storage of baggage is limited and all passengers should have the appropriate dress for the charter and any fishing activities. No liability will be held for any loss, action or claim in respect to a passengers personal effects or baggage.

In the event no consequential loss will be paid.

Medically Fit

To participate in the fishing charter and associated activities, the passenger warrants that he / she is medically fit and capable to undertake the charter. He / she will advise the skipper of any ailments that he or she may have, or medications that they may need to take.

Passengers will at all times obey the directions of the Captain and Crew.

Signed Agreement

To be completed by each passenger before the date of departure. The passenger accepts the above terms and conditions that apply to the 3 Day Charters and has signed the form accepting the terms and conditions as outlined.